Christmas party wraps up end of year club activities

The group met at Daisy’s Lunch Box in Searcy for Christmas dinner. Readings as usual for the guessing game of who wrote what.

Gary Rodgers reported, “Everyone was asked to have a blog post written for the website, and we will discuss those and possibly let a few of those be read. Kim will give a homework assignment given for the February meeting.”

Donna Nelson reported, “Our Christmas Party was simple, but fun. Twelve people attended: Gary R., Kim, Dot, Steve, Del, Jim, Dawn (guest), Lindsey, Shirley, Rhonda, Donna, and Dennis (guest).”

“Daisy’s Lunchbox did a terrific job. Rhonda, as usual, went above and beyond. The readings, with the exception of a couple, were easy to pair with the writer.”

Dot Hatfield kicks off the mystery writer read around with the first entry read.
