The 31st Annual White County Creative Writers Conference was a big success! More than 70 writers came to hear Eli Cranor and Maggie Wells speak on the craft of writing. We also announced winners for the . There were 32 contests available. (View the Conference Photo Album on Facebook). In last month's meeting, we had 28 writers in attendance, some new faces in the group. More than a dozen folks participated in the read around. This month, we'll read some of the award winning stories from the conference.

Congratulations to all WCCW contest winners.
